In the Matter of the Application of the United States Of America for a Search and Seizure Warrant for Compact Discs marked with FBI evidence numbers 15, 16, 17, 18, and 22, Seized from 9 East 71st Street, New York, NY on or about July 7, 2019, and Any Files or Media Stored Therein

TO BE FILED UNDER SEAL

Agent Affidavit in Support of Application for Search and Seizure Warrant

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK) ss.: being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I. Introduction

A. Affiant

1. I have been a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") since 2012. As such, I am a "federal law enforcement officer" within the meaning of Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(a)(2)(C), that is, a government agent engaged in enforcing the criminal laws and duly authorized by the Attorney General to request a search warrant. I have been employed by the FBI for three and a half years, and I am currently assigned to investigate violations of criminal law relating to the sexual exploitation of children. I have gained expertise in this area through classroom training and daily work related to these types of investigations. As part of my responsibilities, I have been involved in the investigation of sex trafficking cases, and have been involved in search warrants for electronic storage media.

2. I make this Affidavit in support of an application pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure for a warrant to search the storage media specified below (the "Subject Devices") for the purpose of seizing the items and information described in Attachment A. This affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge; my review of documents and other evidence; and my conversations with other law enforcement personnel. Because this affidavit is being submitted for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause, it does not include all the facts that I have learned during the course of my investigation. Where the contents of documents and the actions, statements, and conversations of others are reported herein, they are reported in substance and in part, except where otherwise indicated.

B. The Subject Devices

3. The Subject Devices are particularly described as compact discs stored in containers marked with FBI evidence numbers 15, 16, 17, 18, and 22, seized from the residence of JEFFREY EPSTEIN located at 9 East 71st Street, New York, New York (the "Epstein Residence"), on or about July 7, 2019.

C. The Target Subject and the Subject Offenses

4. The Target Subject of this investigation is JEFFREY EPSTEIN.

5. For the reasons detailed below, I believe that there is probable cause to believe that the Subject Devices contain evidence, fruits, and instrumentalities of violations of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1591 (sex trafficking of minors); Title 18, United States Code, and Section 371 (sex trafficking conspiracy)(the "Subject Offenses") by the Target Subject.

II. Probable Cause

6. On or about July 2, 2019, a grand jury in this District returned an Indictment charging JEFFREY EPSTEIN with violations of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1591 (sex trafficking of minors); and Title 18, United States Code, Section 371 (sex trafficking conspiracy). A copy of the Indictment is attached hereto as Exhibit A and is incorporated by reference.

The Indictment and Victim-1

7. As set forth in Exhibit A, from at least in or about 2002, up to and including at least in or about 2005, JEFFREY EPSTEIN sexually abused multiple minor girls in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere. During that time and continuing to the present, EPSTEIN possessed and controlled the Epstein Residence, which is described in Exhibit A as “the New York Residence.” 1

8. As further set forth in paragraphs 8 through 10 of Exhibit A, from at least in or about 2002, up to and including at least in or about 2005, EPSTEIN sexually abused numerous minor victims at the Epstein Residence. In particular, and as alleged in the Indictment, when a victim arrived at the Epstein Residence, she would be escorted to a room inside the Epstein Residence with a massage table, where she would perform a massage on EPSTEIN. The victims, who were as young as 14 years of age, were told by EPSTEIN or other individuals to partially or fully undress before beginning the “massage.” During the encounter, EPSTEIN would escalate the nature and scope of physical contact with his victim to include, among other things, sex acts such as groping and direct and indirect contact with the victims’ genitals. EPSTEIN typically would also masturbate during these sexualized encounters, ask victims to touch him while he masturbated, and touch victims’ genitals with his hands or with sex toys. Following each encounter, EPSTEIN or one of his employees or associates paid the victim in cash. 2

9. As set forth in paragraphs 12 through 13 of Exhibit A, to further facilitate his ability to abuse minor girls in New York, JEFFREY EPSTEIN asked and enticed certain of his victims to recruit additional minor girls to perform “massages” and similarly engage in sex acts with EPSTEIN. When a victim would recruit another minor girl for EPSTEIN, he paid both the victim-recruiter and the new victim hundreds of dollars in cash. EPSTEIN knew that his victims were underage, including because certain victims told him their age. 3

10. One of the victims identified in paragraph 22 of Exhibit A is Victim-1. As part of the FBI's investigation of EPSTEIN, other law enforcement officers have interviewed Victim-1.¹ I know from my conversations with other law enforcement officers who have interviewed Victim-1, that Victim-1 has provided the following information, in substance and in part:

a. Between approximately 2002 and 2005, EPSTEIN sexually abused Victim-1 on multiple occasions in the Epstein Residence. This sexual abuse all occurred when Victim-1 was under the age of 18.

b. During that same period, Victim-1 observed multiple floors of the Epstein Residence and numerous individual rooms within the Epstein Residence. Victim-1 has provided detailed descriptions of certain aspects of the interior of the Epstein Residence, including Victim-1's memory of specific details regarding the layout, furnishings, decorations, and floor pattern of various areas within the Epstein Residence.

c. In particular, Victim-1 observed that a bathroom in the residence contained what appeared to be a bust of a human torso (the "Torso"). Victim-1 believed that the Torso was possibly a type of sex toy.

d. In addition, Victim-1 recalled observing what appeared to be a taxidermied dog in a living space in the Epstein Residence.

¹ In meetings with the Government, Victim-1 has disclosed that, approximately a decade ago, she committed marriage fraud in order to obtain a green card and, subsequently, U.S. citizenship. She has also disclosed personal substance abuse, primarily involving the abuse of prescription drugs, during various periods between the early 2000s and 2019. Victim-1 has also disclosed having worked for approximately a year at a "happy-ending" massage parlor, performing paid sex acts. Victim-1 is currently pursuing a civil damages claim against EPSTEIN for his sexual abuse of her. Information provided by Victim-1 has proven reliable and has been corroborated by independent evidence, including documents and records obtained during the investigation and the accounts of other victims whom Victim-1 has never met.

e. Victim-1 recalled that EPSTEIN typically abused her in a room she described as a “massage room,” (the “Massage Room”), which contained a massage table, and was decorated with artwork depicting naked women, hung on walls that appeared to be adorned with fabric.

f. Victim-1 has not been in the Epstein Residence since approximately 2005.

The July 6, 2019 Search Warrant of the Epstein Residence

11. On or about July 6, 2019, the Honorable Barbara Moses, United States Magistrate Judge, signed a search warrant authorizing a search of the Epstein Residence (the “First Warrant”).

12. At approximately 6 p.m. on or about July 6, 2019, law enforcement officers (the “Search Team”) commenced executing the search warrant at the Epstein Residence; I joined the Search Team thereafter.

13. Based on the Search Team’s observations during an initial search of the Epstein Residence, at approximately 7 p.m., the Search Team stopped the search and froze the scene in order to seek a new search warrant.

14. On or about July 7, 2019, the Honorable Barbara Moses, United States Magistrate Judge, signed a search warrant authorizing a search of the Epstein Residence (the “Second Warrant”). The search warrant is attached as Exhibit B, and incorporated by reference herein. At approximately 2:30 a.m., the Search Team resumed the search, and commenced searching pursuant to the Second Warrant.

15. Based on my conversations with members of the search team, and my participation in the search, I have learned the following:

a. Inside a safe in a closet on the third floor, the Search team discovered, among other items, several binders containing sleeves of compact discs, most of which are labeled with handwriting. In total, the binders contain dozens of compact discs. One disc is marked “Young—

██████████ and ██████████." Another disc is marked "Nudes 00-24." Another is marked "Misc. Nudes." 1 Yet another is marked "Girl Pics Nude." Some discs contain the word "Zorro" or "LSJ." For example, one disc is marked "██████████ Zorro Pics." Based on my conversations with law enforcement agents who have participated in this investigation, I believe the name "Zorro" refers to Zorro Ranch, EPSTEIN's property in New Mexico, and the name LSJ refers to Little Saint James, EPSTEIN's property in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The majority of the discs contain titles that include female names. Some of the discs in the binders seized by the Search Team have titles that appear to refer to trips or vacations. However, given that these discs were contained in a safe, where based on my training and experience I know that contraband is often stored, and given that these discs were stored together with discs referencing girls and nudes, I submit that there is probable cause that all of the discs in the binders seized by the Search Team contain evidence of the Subject Offenses.²

b. In the drawer of a dresser in a room on the Fifth floor of the Epstein residence, the 2 Search team discovered, among other items, a shoebox (the "Shoebox") containing numerous compact discs. The majority of the discs are labeled, in handwriting, with female names. One disc is marked "Thai Massage." Another disc is marked "Blonde Girl Photo Shoot." Yet another disc is marked "Misc. Girls Nude/Dinner--Scientists." The discs in the Shoebox were seized by the Search Team. In another drawer of that same dresser, the Search Team discovered loose polaroid photographs depicting young, nude females who, based on my training and experience, appear to be teenagers. In that same drawer, the Search Team discovered a folder marked, in handwriting, [REDACTED]" which contained photographs, including nude and sexually suggestive photographs of a young girl who, based on my training and experience appears to be younger than 18. The folder contains other nude photographs of young girls who appear to be teenagers, based on my training and experience. Inside the folder is a compact disc marked "[REDACTED] at LJS 6/03" (the [REDACTED] Disc"), which was seized by the Search Team. Given that the labels of the compact discs in the Shoebox reference "massage," "girls," and the name of a girl, and the fact that discs in the Shoebox and the [REDACTED] Disc were seized from a dresser that also contained nude and sexually suggestive photographs of a young girl, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that the discs seized from the Shoebox and the [REDACTED] Disc contain evidence of the Subject Offenses. 1

c. In a closet on the Fifth Floor of the Epstein Residence, the Search Team discovered, among other items, a box marked "women/old photos." The box contained, among other items, approximately seven compact discs, which are labeled with hand-written titles. One disc is marked "nudes 00-24." Another is labeled "Photographer-[REDACTED] 03" The remaining discs contain titles that include female names. All of the foregoing discs were seized by the Search Team. Given that one of these discs is marked "nudes" and that the discs were stored in a box marked "women/old photos," and given the other evidence seized from the Epstein Residence, I submit that there is probable cause that the discs contain evidence of the Subject Offenses. 2

d. In that same closet, the Search Team discovered numerous black binders containing what appear to be print outs of digital photographs (with file names underneath) and compact discs. The Search Team seized approximately ten binders (the "Seized Binders")³ which appeared to contain, among other photographs, photographs of nude or partially nude young girls, some of which are in sexually suggestive poses. Based on my training and experience, some of the young 3 girls appear to be teenagers, some of whom appear to be under the age of 18. The Seized Binders also include photographs of what appear to be family functions, events, and travel. However, given that the discs in the Seized Binders were stored together with photographs of nude or partially nude young girls, I submit that there is probable cause that all of the discs in the Seized Binders contain evidence of the Subject Offenses.⁴

e. The compact discs seized by the Search Team and described in paragraphs 15(a)-(d) are the Subject Devices, and are currently stored within the Southern District of New York in containers marked with FBI evidence numbers 15, 16, 17, 18, and 22.

16. The Second Warrant expressly authorized the search and seizure for "any other documents of communications with or regarding victims of potential victims of the Subject Offenses." Accordingly, the Second Warrant authorizes the search of the Subject Devices because, based on their markings, there was probable cause to believe they included discs that appear to contain documents regarding underage girls who may be victims of the Subject Offenses. However, law enforcement has not yet reviewed the Subject Devices. In an abundance of caution, therefore, I respectfully request that the Court issue a warrant to seize and search the items and information specified in Attachment A to this affidavit and to the Search and Seizure Warrant.

17. Based on the foregoing, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that the Subject Devices contain evidence of the Subject Offenses.

⁴ During the search, the Search Team left behind binders that contained discs, where the majority of the discs were labeled in a manner that did not appear to refer to girls or nudes. Accordingly, this application does not seek authorization to search those compact discs, which were left at the Epstein Residence.

III. Procedures for Searching ESI ¹

A. Review of ESI ²

18. Law enforcement personnel (including, in addition to law enforcement officers and agents, and depending on the nature of the ESI and the status of the investigation and related proceedings, attorneys for the government, attorney support staff, agency personnel assisting the government in this investigation, and outside technical experts under government control) will create a forensic image of the Subject Devices (if practicable) and review the ESI contained therein for information responsive to the warrant. ³

19. In conducting this review, law enforcement personnel may use various techniques to determine which files or other ESI contain evidence or fruits of the Subject Offenses. Such techniques may include, for example: ⁴

- surveying directories or folders and the individual files they contain (analogous to looking at the outside of a file cabinet for the markings it contains and opening a drawer believed to contain pertinent files); ⁵
- conducting a file-by-file review by “opening” or reading the first few “pages” of such files in order to determine their precise contents (analogous to performing a cursory examination of each document in a file cabinet to determine its relevance); ⁶
- “scanning” storage areas to discover and possibly recover recently deleted data or deliberately hidden files; and ⁷
- performing electronic keyword searches through all electronic storage areas to determine the existence and location of data potentially related to the subject matter of the investigation⁵; and ⁸
- reviewing metadata, system information, configuration files, registry data, and any other information reflecting how, when, and by whom the computer was used. ⁹

⁵ Keyword searches alone are typically inadequate to detect all relevant data. For one thing, keyword searches work only for text data, yet many types of files, such as images and videos, do not store data as searchable text. Moreover, even as to text data, there may be information properly subject to seizure but that is not captured by a keyword search because the information does not contain the keywords being searched.

20. Law enforcement personnel will make reasonable efforts to restrict their search to data falling within the categories of evidence specified in the warrant. Depending on the circumstances, however, law enforcement personnel may need to conduct a complete review of all the ESI from seized devices or storage media to evaluate its contents and to locate all data responsive to the warrant. 1

B. Return of ESI 2

21. If the Government determines that the electronic devices are no longer necessary to retrieve and preserve the data, and the devices themselves are not subject to seizure pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(c), the Government will return these items, upon request. Computer data that is encrypted or unreadable will not be returned unless law enforcement personnel have determined that the data is not (i) an instrumentality of the offense, (ii) a fruit of the criminal activity, (iii) contraband, (iv) otherwise unlawfully possessed, or (v) evidence of the Subject Offenses. 3

IV. Conclusion and Ancillary Provisions 4

22. Based on the foregoing, I respectfully submit there is probable cause to believe that evidence of the Subject Offenses, and in particular the items described in Attachment A, will be located within the Subject Devices and therefore request the court to issue a warrant to seize the items and information specified in Attachment A to this affidavit and to the Search and Seizure Warrant. 5

23. The investigation is ongoing, and the investigative team anticipates beginning a search of the Subject Devices this evening, possibly after 10 p.m. In view of the circumstances, I submit that good cause exists to begin the search after 10 p.m.

I. The Subject Devices to Be Searched 2

The Subject Devices are particularly described as compact discs stored in containers 3 marked with FBI evidence numbers 15, 16, 17, 18, and 22, seized from the residence located at 9 East 71st Street, New York, New York, on or about July 7, 2019.

II. Items to Be Seized 4

A. Evidence, Fruits, and Instrumentalities of the Subject Offenses 5

This warrant authorizes the seizure of certain evidence, fruits, and instrumentalities of 6 violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1591 (sex trafficking of minors), and 371 (sex trafficking conspiracy) (the "Subject Offenses") described as follows:

1. Any documents or communications with or regarding victims or potential victims 7 of the Subject Offenses;

2. Any photographs of victims or potential victims of the Subject Offenses; 8

3. Any nude, partially nude, or sexually suggestive photographs of individuals who 9 appear to be teenage girls, or younger;

4. Motion pictures, films, videos, and other recordings of visual or written depictions 10 of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2);

5. Records or other items that evidence ownership, control, or use of, or access to 11 devices, storage media, and related electronic equipment used to access, transmit, or store information relating to the Subject Offenses, including, but not limited to, sales receipts, warranties, bills for Internet access, handwritten notes, registry entries, configuration files, saved usernames and passwords, user profiles, e-mail contacts, and photographs;

6. Any child erotica, defined as suggestive visual depictions of nude minors that do 12 not constitute child pornography as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8).

B. Review of ESI 13

Law enforcement personnel (including, in addition to law enforcement officers and agents, 14 and depending on the nature of the ESI and the status of the investigation and related proceedings, attorneys for the government, attorney support staff, agency personnel assisting the government in this investigation, and outside technical experts under government control) will create a forensic image of the Subject Devices (if practicable) and review the ESI contained therein for information responsive to the warrant.

In conducting this review, law enforcement personnel may use various techniques to 15 determine which files or other ESI contain evidence or fruits of the Subject Offenses. Such techniques may include, for example:

- reviewing metadata, system information, configuration files, registry data, and any other information reflecting how, when, and by whom the computer was used. ⁵

Law enforcement personnel will make reasonable efforts to search only for files, documents, or other electronically stored information within the categories identified in Section II.A of this Attachment. However, law enforcement personnel are authorized to conduct a complete review of all the ESI from seized devices or storage media if necessary to evaluate its contents and to locate all data responsive to the warrant. ⁶

⁶ Keyword searches alone are typically inadequate to detect all relevant data. For one thing, keyword searches work only for text data, yet many types of files, such as images and videos, do not store data as searchable text. UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

JEFFREY EPSTEIN,

Defendant.

SEALED
INDICTMENT

19 Cr.

19 CRIM

490

COUNT ONE
(Sex Trafficking Conspiracy)

The Grand Jury charges:

OVERVIEW

1. As set forth herein, over the course of many years, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, sexually exploited and abused dozens of minor girls at his homes in Manhattan, New York, and Palm Beach, Florida, among other locations.

2. In particular, from at least in or about 2002, up to and including at least in or about 2005, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, enticed and recruited, and caused to be enticed and recruited, minor girls to visit his mansion in Manhattan, New York (the "New York Residence") and his estate in Palm Beach, Florida (the "Palm Beach Residence") to engage in sex acts with him, after which he would give the victims hundreds of dollars in cash. Moreover, and in order to maintain and increase his supply of victims, EPSTEIN also paid certain of his victims to recruit additional girls to be similarly abused by EPSTEIN. In this way, EPSTEIN created a vast network of underage victims for him to sexually exploit in locations including New York and Palm Beach. 1

3. The victims described herein were as young as 14 years old at the time they were abused by JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, and were, for various reasons, often particularly vulnerable to exploitation. EPSTEIN intentionally sought out minors and knew that many of his victims were in fact under the age of 18, including because, in some instances, minor victims expressly told him their age. 2

4. In creating and maintaining this network of minor victims in multiple states to sexually abuse and exploit, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, worked and conspired with others, including employees and associates who facilitated his conduct by, among other things, contacting victims and scheduling their sexual encounters with EPSTEIN at the New York Residence and at the Palm Beach Residence. 3

FACTUAL BACKGROUND 4

5. During all time periods charged in this Indictment, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, was a financier with multiple residences in the continental United States, including the New York Residence and the Palm Beach Residence.

6. Beginning in at least 2002, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, enticed and recruited, and caused to be enticed and 5 recruited, dozens of minor girls to engage in sex acts with him, 1 after which EPSTEIN paid the victims hundreds of dollars in 2 cash, at the New York Residence and the Palm Beach Residence. 3

7. In both New York and Florida, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, 4 the defendant, perpetuated this abuse in similar ways. Victims 5 were initially recruited to provide "massages" to EPSTEIN, which 6 would be performed nude or partially nude, would become 7 increasingly sexual in nature, and would typically include one 8 or more sex acts. EPSTEIN paid his victims hundreds of dollars 9 in cash for each encounter. Moreover, EPSTEIN actively 10 encouraged certain of his victims to recruit additional girls to 11 be similarly sexually abused. EPSTEIN incentivized his victims 12 to become recruiters by paying these victim-recruiters hundreds 13 of dollars for each girl that they brought to EPSTEIN. In so 14 doing, EPSTEIN maintained a steady supply of new victims to 15 exploit. 16

The New York Residence 17

8. At all times relevant to this Indictment, JEFFREY 18
EPSTEIN, the defendant, possessed and controlled a multi-story 19 private residence on the Upper East Side of Manhattan, New York, 20 i.e., the New York Residence. Between at least in or about 2002 21 and in or about 2005, EPSTEIN abused numerous minor victims at 22
the New York Residence by causing these victims to be recruited 23 to engage in paid sex acts with him. 24

EFTA_00114173

EFTA01262846

9. When a victim arrived at the New York Residence, 1
she typically would be escorted to a room with a massage table, 2 where she would perform a massage on JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the 3 defendant. The victims, who were as young as 14 years of age, 4 were told by EPSTEIN or other individuals to partially or fully 5 undress before beginning the "massage." During the encounter, 6 EPSTEIN would escalate the nature and scope of physical contact 7 with his victim to include, among other things, sex acts such as 8 groping and direct and indirect contact with the victim's 9 genitals. EPSTEIN typically would also masturbate during these 10 sexualized encounters, ask victims to touch him while he 11 masturbated, and touch victims' genitals with his hands or with 12 sex toys. 13

10. In connection with each sexual encounter, JEFFREY 14
EPSTEIN, the defendant, or one of his employees or associates, 15 paid the victim in cash. Victims typically were paid hundreds 16 of dollars in cash for each encounter. 17

11. JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, knew that many of 18
his New York victims were underage, including because certain 19 victims told him their age. Further, once these minor victims 20 were recruited, many were abused by EPSTEIN on multiple 21 subsequent occasions at the New York Residence. EPSTEIN 22 sometimes personally contacted victims to schedule appointments 23 at the New York Residence. In other instances, EPSTEIN directed 24 employees and associates, including a New York-based employee 1 ("Employee-1"), to communicate with victims via phone to arrange 2 for these victims to return to the New York Residence for 3

additional sexual encounters with EPSTEIN. 4

12. Additionally, and to further facilitate his 5 ability to abuse minor girls in New York, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the 6 defendant, asked and enticed certain of his victims to recruit 7 additional girls to perform "massages" and similarly engage in 8 sex acts with EPSTEIN. When a victim would recruit another girl 9 for EPSTEIN, he paid both the victim-recruiter and the new 10 victim hundreds of dollars in cash. Through these victim- 11 recruiters, EPSTEIN gained access to and was able to abuse 12 dozens of additional minor girls. 13

13. In particular, certain recruiters brought dozens 14 of additional minor girls to the New York Residence to give 15 massages to and engage in sex acts with JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the 16 defendant. EPSTEIN encouraged victims to recruit additional 17 girls by offering to pay these victim-recruiters for every 18 additional girl they brought to EPSTEIN. When a victim- 19 recruiter accompanied a new minor victim to the New York 20 Residence, both the victim-recruiter and the new minor victim 21 were paid hundreds of dollars by EPSTEIN for each encounter. In 22 addition, certain victim-recruiters routinely scheduled these 23 encounters through Employee-1, who sometimes asked the 1 recruiters to bring a specific minor girl for EPSTEIN. 2

The Palm Beach Residence 3

14. In addition to recruiting and abusing minor girls 4 in New York, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, created a similar 5 network of minor girls to victimize in Palm Beach, Florida, 6 where EPSTEIN owned, possessed and controlled another large 7 residence, i.e., the Palm Beach Residence. EPSTEIN frequently 8 traveled from New York to Palm Beach by private jet, before 9 which an employee or associate would ensure that minor victims 10 were available for encounters upon his arrival in Florida. 11

15. At the Palm Beach Residence, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the 12 defendant, engaged in a similar course of abusive conduct. 13
When a victim initially arrived at the Palm Beach Residence, she 14 would be escorted to a room, sometimes by an employee of 15 EPSTEIN's, including, at times, two assistants ("Employee-2" and 16
"Employee-3") who, as described herein, were also responsible 17 for scheduling sexual encounters with minor victims. Once 18 inside, the victim would provide a nude or semi-nude massage for 19 EPSTEIN, who would himself typically be naked. During these 20 encounters, EPSTEIN would escalate the nature and scope of the 21 physical contact to include sex acts such as groping and direct 22 and indirect contact with the victim's genitals. EPSTEIN would 23 also typically masturbate during these encounters, ask victims 24 to touch him while he masturbated, and touch victims' genitals¹ with his hands or with sex toys.

16. In connection with each sexual encounter, JEFFREY²
EPSTEIN, the defendant, or one of his employees or associates,³ paid the victim in cash. Victims typically were paid hundreds⁴ of dollars for each encounter.⁵

17. JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, knew that certain⁶ of his victims were underage, including because certain victims told him their age. In addition, as with New York-based victims, many Florida victims, once recruited, were abused by JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, on multiple additional occasions.

18. JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, who during the⁷ relevant time period was frequently in New York, would arrange for Employee-2 or other employees to contact victims by phone in advance of EPSTEIN's travel to Florida to ensure appointments were scheduled for when he arrived. In particular, in certain instances, Employee-2 placed phone calls to minor victims in Florida to schedule encounters at the Palm Beach Residence. At the time of certain of those phone calls, EPSTEIN and Employee-2 were in New York, New York. Additionally, certain of the individuals victimized at the Palm Beach Residence were contacted by phone by Employee-3 to schedule these encounters.

19. Moreover, as in New York, to ensure a steady stream of minor victims, JEFFREY EPSTEIN, the defendant, asked and enticed certain victims in Florida to recruit other girls to engage in sex acts. EPSTEIN paid hundreds of dollars to victim-recruiters for each additional girl they brought to the Palm Beach Residence.
